

“The Light Of The World”

John 8:12-13

March 11, 2018

I. Christ alone takes what is formless and gives it form.

A. Outside of a relationship with Christ, we are without form.

B. When we come into Christ, the light of the world, he begins to form us.

II. Christ alone takes what is dark and brings it to light. (v12)

A. Outside of a relationship with Christ, we are in the domain of darkness.

B. Jesus shines light in our darkness for our good, and His glory. (John 8:1-11)

III. Christ alone takes what is void, and fills it with life. (v12) (John 10:10)

A. Outside of a relationship with Christ, we are empty, and void. (Eccl. 3:11)

B. Christ brings purpose, and life into all areas of my life.
